1. The Student

- 1.1 You must ensure that the information you have supplied is correct. If the information is incorrect, Stenden South Africa is entitled to reject your application, terminate your admission or cancel your registration immediately.
- 1.2 During your time as a student, you need to follow the rules and regulations of Stenden South Africa, which are published on the Stenden South Africa Groups Drive or Student Manager, and you will also receive these digitally upon arrival.
- 1.3 You need to pay all registration, tuition, class residence and any other fees set out in the Stenden South Africa Fee Structure and this must reflect on your account once registered. Should Stenden South Africa need to take legal action against you, you will be liable for all Stenden South Africa's legal costs.
- 1.4 Stenden South Africa will charge interest on overdue amounts at a rate of 15.5%. Stenden South Africa will commence with interest charges at the end of the first month after the amounts due by you should have been paid.
- 1.5 Stenden South Africa is entitled to refuse your entry to examinations, withhold your examination results, refuse to register you for any further courses, or withhold your graduation certificate should your account not be paid up in full. Stenden South Africa may also apply all four measures.
- 1.6 Should you require emergency medical treatment, Stenden South Africa will source such assistance, but you will be required to pay all treatment related costs.
- 1.7 The following terms are very important, because they limit your ability to claim any harm to you, your property or the loss of property. If you do not understand these terms, please ask for an explanation.

- 1.7.1 If you suspect that you have an infectious or contagious disease, it is extremely important to get immediate medical assistance. You will be required to withdraw from all Stenden South Africa activities and accommodation, as well as to take all necessary steps to ensure that you do not infect other students and staff. Should you fail to take these steps, you will be held responsible for any claims that are made against Stenden South Africa. (In legal terms, you must indemnify Stenden South Africa against these claims). Should legal action be taken against Stenden South Africa, you will be liable for all legal costs.
- 1.7.2 Stenden South Africa will not be held responsible for any harm to you or your property or loss of property, except for claims which fall under Section 1.7.3.

This means Stenden South Africa will not be liable to you or dependants, even while you are:

- 1.7.2.1 On Stenden property;
 - 1.7.2.2 Participating in an activity relating to your studies or training;
 - 1.7.2.3 Participating in recreational activities;
 - 1.7.2.4 Using any of Stenden South Africa's premises, buildings, equipment or facilities;
 - 1.7.2.5 Staying in or visiting any of Stenden South Africa's residences or other accommodation.
- 1.7.3 You will only be able to bring a claim for harm to your or your property or loss of property if it is caused because you had access to property or equipment that was defective or unsafe, or if you were not given proper instructions or warnings. In other words, the only claim you can make falls within Section 61 of the Consumer Protection Act 68 of 2008. If this application is accepted, it will constitute part of the contract with Stenden South Africa.

Legal Guardian/Sponsor/Guarantor Responsibilities

The applicant's parent/guardian must sign this form, whether you are 18 years of age or not.

2. The Parent/Guardian

- 2.1 By signing this application form, you become a surety and co-principle debtor for the debts of the student. This means that Stenden South Africa can hold you liable for any debt owed by the student, whether the student acted with your consent or not.
- 2.2 You consent to the agreement between the student and Stenden South Africa, and specifically to the terms set out in Section 1 above. This means that, if the student is a minor, you are ratifying the agreement concluded by the student.
- 2.3 You agree that Stenden South Africa can claim the entire amount that is owed by the student from you without claiming against the student first. (In legal terms, you are jointly and severally liable as surety and co-principle debtor). If you do not understand what this means, you should obtain legal advice.
- 2.4 You must read Section 1 very carefully, as you will be held responsible if the student does not comply with any of the terms. In particular, you will be liable for any of the fees mentioned in Section 1.3.
- 2.5 You must read section 1.7 very carefully, as it limits Stenden South Africa's liability for any harm to the student, the student's property or loss of property. In addition, Stenden South Africa will not be held responsible for any harm to you, or your property or loss of property when you are on Stenden South Africa property or participating in an activity relating to the student's studies. You will not be able to claim in terms of Section 1.7.3 on behalf of yourself or the student, except if the student was a minor at the time of injury or damage.

If you are married in community of property, then both you and your spouse are required to sign.
